Published by Authority.

From Tuesday June 5, to Saturday June 9, 1759.

Kensington, June 8.

THIS Day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, waited on His Majesty, and being introduced to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Essex, one of the Lords of His Majesty's Bed Chamber, Sir William Moreton, Knt. the Recorder, made their Compliments in the following Address.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, humbly beg Leave to congratulate Your Majesty on the Satisfaction of seeing Your Royal Grandson the Prince of Wales, that great Object of your Majesty's paternal Care and Solitude, arrived at his Age of Twenty One Years, mature in all the Accomplishments that can add Lustre to his high Dignity, or command the Love and Veneration of Mankind, Long may his Royal Highness enjoy the Benefit of Your Majesty's salutary Precepts and Example, and continue to make your Majesty the amplest Returns of filial Duty and Respect. May his Royal Highness live to emulate the Virtues that have endeared Your Majesty's Sacred Person and Government to a free People; and may there never be wanting one of Your Majesty's Illustrious Race to perpetuate the Blessings we derive from Your auspicious Reign.

Permit us, most Gracious Sovereign, to embrace this Opportunity of humbly assuring Your Majesty, that no hostile Threats can intimidate a People animated by the Love of Liberty, and inspired with a Sense of Duty and Affection to Your Majesty; who, confiding in the Divine Providence, and the experienced Wisdom and Vigour of Your Majesty's Councils, are resolved to employ their utmost Efforts towards enabling Your Majesty to repel the Insults, and defeat the Attempts, of the ancient Enemies of Your Majesty's Crown and Kingdoms.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return this most gracious Answer.

THE Cordial Expressions of your constant Attachment to my Person and Family, are very agreeable to me; and I return you my hearty Thanks for this fresh Mark of your Zeal and Affection.

I have the firmest Confidence in the Fidelity and Spirit of my People, and I trust I shall be well enabled, under the Divine Providence, to defeat and frustrate the most daring Attempts of the ancient Enemy of my Crown.

They were all received very graciously, and had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

After which His Majesty was pleased to confer the Honour of Knighthood on

Thomas Chitty, Esq; Alderman,
Matthew Blakiston, Esq; Alderman,
William Stephenson, Esq; Alderman,
James Hodges, Esq; Town-Clerk.

Saville-House, June 9.

This Day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, waited on his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, and being introduced by the Right Honourable Lord Robert Bertie, one of the Lords of his Royal Highness's Bed-Chamber, Sir William Moreton, the Recorder, made their Compliments in the following Speech.

To his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

May it please your Royal Highness,

YOUR Royal Highness having happily attained your Age of Twenty-one Years, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, in Common-Council assembled, humbly beg Leave to compliment your Royal Highness upon an Event so pleasing to the King, and so very interesting to His Majesty's faithful Subjects.

But permit us, Sir, at the same Time, without offending the Modesty which so eminently distinguishes and adorns your Character, to express the yet greater Pleasure we enjoy in beholding your Royal Highness possessed of every Virtue and Accomplishment which we had Reason to presage from the Excellence of your Genius, and the Goodness of your Disposition.

When we consider your Royal Highness's exemplary Piety, your dutiful Deportment towards the King, your respectful Affection for your august Mother, your early Knowledge of the Constitution and true Interests of these Kingdoms, and your Solitude for the Happiness and Prosperity of the People, we form the most agreeable Prospects, and reflect with Gratitude upon the Wisdom and Attention that have been employed to cultivate these noble Sentiments in your Princely Breast.

May they more and more endear your Royal Highness to His Majesty, and hereafter be exerted in a higher Sphere in preserving the Religious and Civil Rights, happily entrusted to the Protection of His Majesty's Illustrious House.

To which his Royal Highness was pleased to return the following Answer.

My Lord and Gentlemen,

I Return you my hearty Thanks for this Mark of your Duty to the King, and Attention to me. You may always depend upon my warmest Wishes for the the Prosperity of this great City, and for whatever can in the least promote the Trade and Manufactures of my native Country.

They all had the Honour to kiss his Royal Highness's Hand.

Leicester House, June 9.

This Day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, waited on her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales, and being introduced by Sir William Irby, Bart. Chamberlain to her Royal Highness, Sir William Moreton, the Recorder, made their Compliments in the following Speech.

To her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales.

May it please your Royal Highness,

THE Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, warmed with the most dutiful Affection for His Majesty, and with Gratitude to your Royal Highness for the early and repeated Marks of your Regard, humbly beg Leave to compliment your Royal Highness upon the Happiness of seeing your Illustrious Son the Prince of Wales arrived at the Age of Twenty-one Years, endowed with every noble Quality which maternal Fondness could hope, or a free People wish in the Heir Apparent to the Crown.

These, Madam, are the Fruits, these the glorious Reward of your Royal Highness's pious Instructions and Example.

By having thus laid the Foundation of our future Happiness and Prosperity, your Royal Highness has secured the Blessings of the present Age, and a Name of distinguished Honour in the future Annals of Great Britain.

To which her Royal Highness was pleased to return the following Answer.

My Lord and Gentlemen,

I return you many Thanks for your most obliging Compliment; my utmost Ambition has ever been to see my Son answer the Expectation of his Country; if I have succeeded in that, all my Wishes are completed.

They all had the Honour to kiss her Royal Highness's Hand.

Landsbut, May 24. On the 21st Instant, about Three in the Afternoon, a Corps of about 6000 Austrians, partly Regulars, commanded by the Generals Loudohn and Guisruck, attacked the little Town of Liebau, on both Sides, having sent Parties thro' the Woods for that Purpose: And, the free Battalions of Angenelli and Du Verger having retired towards the Camp, the Austrians took Possession of Liebau without Opposition. On the first Notice of this, the King of Prussia immediately ordered the Troops to march, which Orders were performed with great Alacrity and Expedition; and his Prussian Majesty went in Person to the Place of the Attack. The Austrians seeing the good Countenance of the Prussian Troops, thought proper to retire, after a slight Skirmish, and were followed in their Retreat to Dittersback, and as far as Konigshayn in Bohemia; but Night coming on, and there being dangerous Defiles to pass, it was not thought proper to continue the Pursuit. The Loss on the Side of the Prussians is very inconsiderable; and that which the Austrians have suffered was chiefly owing to the Superiority of the Prussian Artillery during the Retreat.

Copenhagen, May 29. The usual Council having been held at Friedensburg on Friday last, the King of Denmark came the next Day to Town, and set out Yesterday upon his Progress into Holstein. This Day his Danish Majesty proposes to pass the Great Belt, and to be at Gottorp the 2d of June, at Rendsburg the 9th, and the 16th at Itzehoe. And during his Stay at those several Places, the Troops in the Neighbourhood will be reviewed. From Itzehoe he comes back, intending to be at Gottorp again on the 25th; so that the Business of his Journey being then over, his Danish Majesty will probably make the best of his Way to Zealand, and return hither about the End of June.

Hague, June 5. Prince Ferdinand keeps his former Position upon the Lippe and Roer, and his Serene Highness's Head Quarters continued at Recke. Marshal Contades seems still to pursue his first Plan of assembling his Army upon the Frontiers of Hesse. The Corps under M. d'Armentieres remains at Wesel and Duffeldorff.

Navy-Office, May 17, 1759.

The Right Hon. the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed Money for paying Half Pay to Sea Officers, from the 31st of December 1757, to the 30th of June 1758, according to his Majesty's Establishment on that Behalf;

These are to give Notice, that the said Payment will begin to be made at the Treasurer of the Navy's Office in Broad Street, on Tuesday the 5th of next Month, at Ten of the Clock in the Morning, and continued the following Day, beginning at the same Hour: That all Persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable unto them, and not only bring with them the Affidavit required touching their not having enjoyed the Benefit of any publick Employment, either at Sea or on Shore, during the Time they are to be paid the said Half Pay, but also produce Certificates that they have subscribed to the Test, and taken the Oaths required by Act of Parliament to his present Majesty. And in Case any of the said Sea Officers shall not be able to attend themselves to receive their Money, but employ Attorneys for that Purpose, that the said Attorneys may produce the like Certificates and Affidavits from the Persons they are employed by.
